EXHIBITS

THE BEAUREGARD PARISH FAIR ASSOCIATION, IT'S DIRECTORS AND OFFICER, AND ANY DESIGNATED FAIR WORKERS NOR ANY OF THEM INDIVIDUALLY SHALL BE HELD RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY LOSS, DAMAGE OR INJURY OF ANY CHARACTER, TO ANY PERSON, ANIMAL, OR ARTICLE WHILE IT IS ON THE BEAUREGARD PARISH FAIRGROUNDS, OR AT ANY OTHER TIME OR PLACE.

BEGINNING 2007 the Beauregard Parish Fair Association nor the County Agent's Office will no longer be responsible for tagging and sending items to the State Fair in Shreveport during the middle of October. Our decision was based on the care of the parish exhibit items once they were in the possession of the State Fair in Shreveport. All tagging and transportation of the exhibits to the State Fair in Shreveport will be the responsibility of each individual exhibitor. When items are picked up on Monday, October 9, 2023 after Parish Fair, tagging materials will be available if exhibitors wish to take the personal responsibility of entering and transporting their own exhibits to the State Fair in Shreveport. In lieu of items not being taken to State Fair the Beauregard Parish Fair Association will be offering a Sweepstakes, Best In Show Award for each section in youth work and adult division. This Sweepstakes will be an award of $10 above and beyond any other award (s) received in each section.

NOTICE: Fair Personnel have the right to refuse any entry that they do not feel worthy of exhibit. Judges and fair personnel have the right to add items into entry as deemed necessary.

GENERAL RULES

-All exhibitors must be residents of Beauregard Parish or Ward Seven of Vernon Parish, referred to as Ward Nine.
-All exhibitors must be the property of the exhibitor and produced or domiciled in Beauregard Parish or Ward Nine.
-Exhibits will be accepted on Monday, October 2, 2023.
According to INSTRUCTION FOR ENTERING ARTICLES or specific instructions given under PREMIUM LIST DEPARTMENT of this catalog. No entries in the Culinary Department shall be accepted after noon Monday, October 2, 2023.

All school and ward exhibits must be in the care of one or more attendants.

Quantities specified in premium lists must be strictly adhered to in preparing exhibits for entry.

Exhibits not listed in the catalog will be accepted for exhibition purposes only.

Interference with the work of the judges will bar exhibitor from competition.

Superintendents in each division will assist judges in performing their work, but have no influence in making awards.

Judging in the Culinary Department begins at 1:00 PM on Monday, October 2, 2023. Please clear the area so the Judges, Clerks, and Superintendents may move about freely.

The Exhibit Buildings will be closed Tuesday, October 3, 2023, to all except authorized persons assisting with judging. These areas will open to the public at official opening time. JUDGES DECISIONS WILL BE FINAL IN ALL CATEGORIES!!!!!!!

Every exhibit MUST remain in place in all departments and classes until Sunday, October 8, 2023, except where special instructions are printed under the specific Department section of this catalog. Persons removing exhibits prior to Sunday October 8, 2023, will forfeit all prizes, ribbons, and/or awards and will be barred from exhibiting in future fairs in Beauregard Parish. EXHIBITS MUST BE PICKED UP SUNDAY, OCTOBER 8, 2023 BETWEEN 2 P.M. & 5 P.M. OR MONDAY, OCTOBER 9, 2023, BETWEEN 9:00 A.M. AND 1:00 P.M. EXHIBITS NOT PICKED UP THIS DATE WILL BE DESTROYED!!! PREMIUM CHECKS WILL BE GIVEN WITH PICKUP. PREMIUM CHECKS UNDER THE AMOUNT OF $5.00 WILL NOT BE MAILED.

The Beauregard Parish Fair Office will be open 10:00 A.M. until 2:00 P.M. Monday through Friday, September 18th, thru September 29th, 2023, to issue Exhibitor Numbers and tags for those persons wishing to complete paper work at home before opening day of the fair. Persons who complete this process may pick up on opening day with item No. 10 of the instructions below. This option ends at 2:00 P.M. September 29th, 2023! The fair office is located at the south side at the entrance on West Drive. Phone # 337-462-3135.

INSTRUCTIONS OF ENTERING EXHIBITS

1. Use the entry form found in the back of this catalog or a photocopy of the form in this catalog. List the articles you wish to exhibit with the complete PREMIUM NUMBER as it is listed in the catalog. There will be some extra forms available on opening day at station marked “ENTRY FORMS” and in livestock barn receiving area.

Please list livestock entries on a separate entry form from entries placed in other departments. This entry tag is how you get paid. It must be completed in the name of the person entering item to assure proper payment.

2. LIVESTOCK ENTRIES WILL BE ACCEPTED ON SATURDAY, September 30, 2023 FROM 2:00 P.M. UNTIL 5:00 P.M. ENTRIES ONLY-NO ANIMALS SHALL BE BROUGHT IN AT THIS TIME. LIVESTOCK ENTRIES WILL BE ACCEPTED MONDAY, October 3, 2023 8:00 A.M.-5:30 P.M.

SECTION 11 SENIOR ARTS AND CRAFTS

Exhibitors 14 to 19 years of age

All drawings, paintings, original poetry and photography must be framed or suitably matted for hanging and have a wire attached so that work may be hung on pegboard hooks for exhibit. It is the exhibitor's responsibility to see that a wire is attached securely and is strong enough to support the weight of his work. All framed or matted artwork should have a wire attached for hanging. Items will not be accepted if they are not equipped with hangers

All animals shall remain on exhibit until release time, which is at 6:30 A.M. Sunday, October 8, 2023. Animals that leave early are subject to having awards forfeited.

Youth or Junior shall be defined as any exhibitor meeting 4-H or FFA membership age requirements or younger.

It is the exhibitor's or parents responsibility to enter the animal, showmanship, and other contests; and to get prospect and/or market animals weighed at the designated times.

Animals not properly cared for may be disqualified.

Exhibitors are responsible for feeding and watering their animals.

All animals will be exhibited in the Show Ring by the Exhibitor of Record except Tie Rack Cattle, an exhibitor having more than one animal to exhibit in a class, or the exhibitor becomes ill.

No single animal may be exhibited more than once, except for champion drives and showmanship.

Prospect or Market classes for sheep, goats, or swine are for females and castrated males. (NO INTACT MALES).

Market goats must be dehorned, disbudded or polled. Any scurs or horn structuring must be blunt and not exceed one inch in length. Goats not meeting dehorning requirements shall be placed in commercial class and will not be eligible to compete for Champion or Reserve Champion.

ALL RABBITS MUST BE TATOED.

All market goats and sheep must not show evidence of permanent incisors.

Bucks/ Rams must be registered but will not be allowed on grounds until Saturday morning.

All animals used in showmanship must have been entered and/or shown in the Youth Division.

Peewee showmanship will be included for each species. They may exhibit an animal entered by another youth or entered by themselves in the BPF.

ANYONE CAUGHT STEALING ANIMALS FROM THE BEAUREGARD FAIR WILL BE PROSECUTED TO THE FULLEST!

All animals used in showmanship must have been entered and/or shown in the Youth Division. Peewee showmanship will be included for each species. They may exhibit an animal entered by another youth or entered by themselves in the BPF.

Bucks/Rams must be registered but will not be allowed on grounds until Saturday morning and are released after showing.

Livestock wristbands will be issued for all species except Rabbits. Rabbit exhibitors will be given passes if rabbits are required to stay.

MAX of 4 bands/ passes per family.

No hay (including hay bags) is allowed in the barn. Tie racks are provided, outside the barn, for exhibitor use.

Feeding and watering of cattle must be done at the outside tie racks or even in the wash rack if need be.

All cattle should be back in the barn by 5:00 P.M. each evening, so that fairgoers can view them. After all, these are the people who pay to get into the fair and this is the money that is used to pay the livestock premiums.

No dogs allowed in the barn.

Groom animals in the designated areas. Do not groom animals in the tie areas.

All grooming equipment, feed buckets and water buckets, and other items must be removed from the aisles before 5 p.m. nightly.

It is the responsibility of the exhibitors to cleanup their pens and tie-spaces. The Fair will provide trash cans and etc. to help in keeping the barn clean.

Do not put manure in the trash cans. It goes outside to the area designated for it. Wheel barrows and shovels will be provided by the Beauregard Fair Association to haul the manure.

All animals, to be admitted to the fairgrounds, must be free of infections, parasites, and appear to be in good health and vitality. Upon examination, animals that reveal symptoms of infectious, contagious, or parasitic disease, including external parasites such as mange, mites, lice, etc. shall be removed from the barn.

All show animals must have current health papers issued by a licensed veterinarian and meet the health rules and regulations as set down by the Louisiana Department of Agriculture. Livestock Sanitary Board, Health papers and animals are subject to be inspected by Livestock Sanitary officials before unloading. This includes Poultry and Rabbits.

Judges decisions are final.

THE BEAUREGARD PARISH FAIR WILL NOT BE RESPONSIBLE FOR ANIMALS LEFT AFTER NOON ON SUNDAY FOLLOWING THE FAIR.
